Join the Yuba City Fire and Parks & Recreation Departments at the annual Children's Freedom Parade! This is a fabulous way to kick off a day of celebration for our great nation! The parade is for children up through 6th grade and will take place on Plumas St at 10 am. The parade route will begin on Plumas and A St. and will end at the Town Square. Food and drink will be served at the end of the parade. Parents are welcome to accompany their young children on the parade route. Staging will begin at 9:30 am. Please check-in to receive your American Flag and participation ribbon!

Please Note: No animals or pets. Helmets are required for ANY vehicle with wheels.

This is a wonderful, family friendly event. Come and enjoy the morning by interacting with other community members, eating great food and listening to patriotic music. For more information or to volunteer, please contact the Recreation Department at 822-4650.
