

A vintage-style logo for Yuba City, California. The central text "YUBA CITY" is rendered in a large, green, serif font with a white outline and a drop shadow. Above the text, several birds are depicted in flight against a background of radiating sunbeams. Below the text, the scene is divided into three parts: on the left, a cluster of agricultural products including a large red and yellow bell pepper, a purple eggplant, several green almonds on their stems, and some wheat stalks; in the center, a view of a river or canal with a field of green crops on the far bank and blue mountains in the distance; on the right, a street scene featuring a building with a blue awning, a black water tower, a street lamp, and a tall palm tree.
